FRRC to Celebrate Desmond Meade Day with Day of Service

This year’s Desmond Meade Day will highlight the importance of second chance employment with the announcement of a statewide campaign to support Florida businesses and returning citizens

Orlando, FL (September 10, 2021) – On Friday, September 10th, the Florida Rights Restoration Coalition (FRRC) will celebrate “Desmond Meade Day” with community service activities across the state, and the announcement of a statewide second chance employment campaign. FRRC will be joined in the celebration by leaders from the Orlando Magic and the Orange County government. FRRC is dedicated to improving communities across the state by empowering returning citizens and removing barriers to employment, housing and voting for people with criminal backgrounds. To spread awareness and inspire others to believe in the power of second chances FRRC will spend the day of September 10th traveling throughout central Florida on a mission to give back, followed by a weekend of service events throughout the state.
